The behavior of the student is perceived as needing disciplinary action or as posing an unreasonable risk to student or others.

Faculty, staff, student or administrator identifies and reports student exhibiting disruptive behavior via Incident Report, phone call, e-mail, or MAP-Works.*

SAT members receive notification.

SAT members evaluate student concerns.

SAT evaluates/recommends actions to address concerns for student regarding:
- Distress/erratic behavior
- Academic performance
- Self-injurious behavior
- Alcohol/drug use

SAT identifies professional resources to work with student to address concerns. Additional action(s) may or may not be needed.

*The SAT process is for low-level issues--if behavior is unmanageable or a life-threatening emergency, immediately call 911 and then contact Campus Security.
